

Climb Channel Solutions Selects TeamViewer as Preferred Remote Access and Support Solution Provider

Eatontown, NJ (November 30, 2022) – Climb Channel Solutions, an international specialty technology distributor and wholly-owned subsidiary of Climb Global Solutions, Inc. (NASDAQ: CLMB) has selected TeamViewer as their preferred partner for providing remote access and support solutions for customers around the world.

"In a constantly evolving hybrid work environment with complex connectivity and security requirements, it's more important than ever for customers to have trusted, reliable and secure remote access, control and support software," said Patricia Nagle, President of TeamViewer Americas. "We are excited that Climb sees TeamViewer as the premier partner in providing the solution that best meets these important needs."

The extension of the longstanding partnership between Climb and TeamViewer leverages Climb's strong global network of reseller partners and TeamViewer's leadership in remote connectivity, to jointly offer more organizations the ability to work from anywhere, with access to any device, providing instant remote support for customers and employees.

"The quality of TeamViewer's products and the relationship we have built over the years was critical in our decision to select TeamViewer as our preferred remote access and support partner," says Dale Foster, CEO of Climb Channel Solutions. "Comprehensive coverage, accessing all types of devices running on all major operating systems, best-in-class functionality and performance, a strong focus on built-in security and data privacy, and wide device coverage is why TeamViewer is the leader in this market and why we consider them a premier partner."
